It's Nothing

Moloko

Nothing can stop you
Nothing can break you now
This is'ness has put you out of business
Bought and sold me, I'm lonely
I will admit I'm lonely
Just keep on walking
Act like you don't know me
Disown me, go ahead disown me
It doesn't really matter at all
Nothing seems to matter
Nothing can hurt you
Nothing can bring you down
Nothing at all
Nothing can break you
Nothing can take you now
Nothing at all
Let me down easy, speak softly
Let me down gently
I realize it must be disorientating
What was I, what was I saying?
Doesn't really matter anymore
Nothing seems to matter
Nothing at all
Nothing can hurt you
Nothing can bring you down
Nothing at all
Nothing can take you
Nothing can break your heart
Nothing at all
Nothing can hurt you
Nothing can bring you down
Nothing at all
Nothing can take you
Nothing can break your heart
Nothing at all
This is a matter
This is a matter
This is a matter
Nothing can wreck me

Nothing can take me down
