Mulatto

Up drift a black cloud
Over the border
From southern town
Nigger Charlie came
Settled in a white town.
Met white Mary
And the whole town frowned.
The women gossiped-
The men swore!
Nigger Charlie left-
Couldn't take no more.
And neighbors didn't mind
'Til they found
Half of him left behind.
