

Stars, Strays and Ashtrays

Eric Clapton

There are song you can never remember.

Songs that you cannot forget.

There are people always forgiving.

Has heaven forgiven me yet? Just like stars, strays and ashtrays, they called you her own.

Just like stars, strays and ashtrays, they can always be found. Just like stars, strays and ashtrays, they called you her own.

Just like stars, strays and ashtrays, they can always be found. Just like stars, strays and ashtrays, they called you around.

Just like stars, strays and ashtrays, they can always be found. Just like stars, strays and ashtrays, they called you around.

Just like stars, strays and ashtrays, they can always be found. Yes!

Just like stars, strays and ashtrays, they called you around.

Just like stars, strays and ashtrays, they'll never let you down.
