

If You're Gonna Leave

Emerson Hart

Maybe I'm the joker
Maybe I'm the fool in your eyes
Maybe I'm the weak one
Maybe I'm a liar in disguise
Maybe I'm angry
'Cause I'm the one who's always wrong
Maybe I'm not the one who's so strong
Did you think about it
Did you pour it in and pour it out
Could you live without me
Did you ever really have a doubt
But do you understand it baby
When you say it's over, it's done
Maybe I'm not the one
So If you're gonna leave
Yeah you better get going
'Cause I ain't wasting no more time
On what you did, and what you didn't
So if you're gonna leave
Yeah you better start running
'Cause I ain't wasting no more time
On what might have been
We can stand on reason
We can fight about all the things
This isn't forever
This is more than a wedding ring
But do you understand it baby
When you say it's over, it's done
Maybe I'm not the one
So If you're gonna leave
Yeah you better get going
'Cause I ain't wasting no more time
On what I did, and what I didn't
So if you're gonna leave
Yeah you better start running
'Cause I ain't wasting no more time
Oh, did it happen again
With the things that you wanted
From being a friend
How did it happen again
Just look onward baby
Someday you might need a friend
So If you're gonna leave
Yeah you better get going
'Cause I ain't wasting no more time

On what we did, and what we didn't
So if you're gonna leave
Yeah you better start running
'Cause I ain't wasting no more time
I ain't wasting no more time
On what might have been
