Cry

Tynisha Keli

Oh oh oh ohhhhh oh
Oh oh oh noooo ooo
Woahhhhhh
Have you ever had a problem you had to keep to yourself and
Your tryin but it hurts like hell
It's a feelin I despise, bringin misery to life
Wishin you had someone to trust in
So you can let it all out convey the reason you been feelin so down
But when you reach out for help you find there's no one but yourself
I know...
(X2)Life won't be this tough forever, only one thing makes it better
Don't hold it inside, no such thing as pride when your hearts on the Line it's okay to cry
I know what your feelin, I've been through it myself
Contained emotions I was locked in a shell

Little did I know I was headed down that road
I never had a compass directing where I should go
Make a left off victim road
Continue straight into the light
Because that's where you should find help
(X2)Life won't be this tough forever, only one thing makes it better
Don't hold it inside, no such thing as pride when your hearts on the Line it's okay to cry
(X2)And were never too old or too grown to just cry
Said u gotta let it out sometime
Sit in a corner and cry, hug on a pillow and cry
Scream to the top of your lungs and jus cry
(X2)Life won't be this tough forever, only one thing makes it better
Don't hold it inside, no such thing as pride when your hearts on the Line it's okay to cry
