Is Forever Enough

Hawk Nelson

What makes
All of us hate
We're all the same
We roll the diceAnd we play Your game
We complicate
Show us the way
Before it's too late and the whole thing breaksWe have a name
We all create
Everything elseBut mistakes we made
We'll make a change
We'll concentrate
Before we suffocateCan't hold this in and keep it quiet any longer
We're fallin' in and now this feeling's getting strongerTake my breath away
Now, I'm tryin' to get up
I'm tryin' to retrace my steps back
To where ever I messed upIs forever enough?
(I'm holdin' on)
I know You'll be there
Whenever I wake upWhat makes
Everything change
We're not the same
We all get stuck in the same clicheWe take it in
We dominate
Put on the pressure
And the whole thing breaksOur common weight
Why do we hate
We throw it away
Like the last crusadeWe rearrange
We need to change
Before we suffocateCan't hold this in and keep it quiet any longer
We're fallin' in and now this feeling's getting stronger
Can't hold this in and keep it quiet any longer
We're fallin' in and now this feeling's getting strongerTake my breath away now
I'm tryin' to get up
I'm tryin' to retrace my steps back
To where ever I messed upIs forever enough
(I'm holdin' on)
I know You'll be there
Whenever I wake upNow, I'm tryin' to get up

I'm tryin' to retrace my steps back
I've falling in and now
This feeling's getting strongerYou take my breath away now
I'm tryin' to get up
I'm tryin' to retrace my steps back
To where ever I messed upIs forever enough?
(Is forever enough?)
(I'm holdin' on)
I know You'll be there
Whenever I wake upWhen ever I wake up
(I'll know You'll be there)
Whenever I wake up
Whenever I wake up
When I wake upWhat makes
All of us hate
Show us the way
Before it's to late and the whole thing breaks
