Open Water

Sasha

Lost in a crowd, follow them all around
I know the way out but Im not in the moodUnbreakable rules failed, Im not breakin me easily
Dont punish meWhen it comes to decide, Im alone and Not gonna hide, Im right thereAnd I feel like I'm open water
And I feel like I know where to go'Cause I feel that wherever Im falling
Im falling somewhere I can feelNot gonna run, Im just gonna take my time
Maybe Im wrong to walk on thin iceIm not looking down, Im just going straight ahead
Carefree but not endlesslyWhen it comes to decide
Im the one whos not gonna hide, Im right hereAnd I feel like I'm open water
And I feel like I know where to go'Cause I feel that wherever Im falling
Im falling somewhere I can feelAnd I feel like I'm open water
And I feel like I know where to go'Cause I feel that wherever Im falling
Im falling somewhereI can feel like I'm open water
And I feel like I know where to go'Cause I feel that wherever Im falling
Im falling somewhere, I can feel
