

Liberate

H2O

No more lies with violent ends
No more fakes disguised as friends
No one has the time to waste on them I want you to know
It's something that I feel
It's deep inside of me
A part of you as well, understanding and slips so far away
And sometimes I can't deal
Don't have the time for someone else's scandal
My own life is hard enough to handle No more lies with violent ends
No more fakes disguised as friends
No one has the time to waste on them And I still believe
Most people are the same
We're so conflicted
And we need someone to blame Is it just pride
Or do we have to hide
All our problems
No we will never tell Don't have the time for someone else's scandal
My own life is hard enough to handle No more lies with violent ends
No more fakes disguised as friends
No one has the time to waste on them And we will liberate ourselves from them
Liberate, liberate No more lies with violent ends
No more fakes disguised as friends
No one has the time to waste on them No more lies with violent ends
No more fakes disguised as friends
No one has the time to waste on them I still believe
