Boys In Bands Interlude

Gym Class Heroes

And so it goesWe mouth your words
When your tongues are too paralyzed
We finish up the peanut butter jelly
That you get on your router but never eatWe still pee in bottles
We play at your graduation parties
We have fallen comrades
We just rebuild the teamOur friends are rich and we love it
'Cause it makes us look wealthy too
Shit, I still got a sidekick one
With a crack in the fucking screen manWe were your favorite [Incomprehensible]
I'm the first person to know about these guys and whole band
We dance to use me by Bill Winters in a drunken stupor
Until ma gets ready to tell us to go the fuck home and kick us outWe make mistakes, we love, we hate
We're not angry anymore though
Still miss you, still love you
Like a slug hates salt and we're still your heroes
