Tears

Stuck Mojo

All that money there shouldn't be no tears, dry your eyes sfter so many tries.Celebrity status you're the saddest, wasn't that O.J. case one of the maddest?!Fallen stars disregard, some lead by example, others go too far.Until behind bars was in the realm of untouchables but you got touched now shut up!There's only so many, there's only so many, there's only so many tears that you can cry.Design buy a higher being cry and whine, but nobody's dropping.

Bang bang biggie Tupac the bully master schemeDime feel no sorrow cause they knew they weren't promised tomorrow

Propaganda wrecking you like PanzersBut like the desert fox you can be destroyed.Sneaking up on you like the Trojans did Troy.We couldn't trust Marv like the barber named Floyed?!

There's only so many, there's only so many, there's only so many tears that you can cry.Cry baby cry, dry your lying eyesCry baby cry, with every tear I fearCry baby cry, what a nice tryCry baby cry, what's that in your eye?A lie formulating, you've been busted this time!There's only so many, there's only so many, there's only so many tears that you can cry.
