Late Show

Hawk Nelson

You get me so simply
But my heart won't let meI won't forget that night I saw her at the movies
She has this way about her, she smiles whenever she walks
I'm tryin' find the nerve to finally introduce me
She has this glow about her you'd catch it whenever she talksLets go knocking on my window
We can watch the late show
And movies made for cable
And then we'll talk listenin' to punk rock
We'll hang out and wait until the sun comes upYou get me so simply
But my heart won't let meI won't forget that night I saw her at the movies
She has this way about her, she smiles whenever she walks
I'm tryin' find the nerve to finally introduce me
She has this glow about her you'd catch it whenever she talksLets go knocking on my window
We can watch the late show
And movies made for cable
And then we'll talk listenin' to punk rock
We'll hang out and wait until the sun comes up
