

Speed Heart

Bikini Kill

I steal power from fantasy
Still not going with your vanity Every guy I meet is such a cheater
And still I'm as fast as you It's all the time of emotion
God, something that's so small Can't you get out off my street
I don't need your company What do you want from me?
What do you want from me?
What do you want from me?
What do you want from me? It's so...it's so...oh
A shelter from the pain I don't really think I need you
What do you want from me? You are so, you are so...
