

Planes & Satellites

Sonia Dada

When I was a boy
You know my momma would say to me
The world's a mystery of darkness and light
When I was a kid
I was sent off to inner space
To escape the evil place, I was livin' in Well, well
When I was alone
I would close my eyes at night
Filled with imaginary light, with the moon and stars
Yeah, yeah
But I remember
Livin' in the street
And then my heart just drifts away, into the night
Well, well, well
In the sky, in the sky, in the sky, in the sky
They got the planes and satellites
Yeah, airplanes and satellites
Whoa, whoa
In the sky, in the sky, in the sky, in the sky
They got the planes and satellites
Yeah, airplanes and satellites
Whoa, whoa
You know my momma said, boy
She said, baby, baby, baby, baby, baby boy
You're the one that's safe?
You know that evil ain't goin' away
It ain't goin' away, no, no
But I look up in the sky, yeah yeah
It ain't flooded with the stars
Pretty lights are flying across
Shinin' on me yeah yeah
In the sky, in the sky, in the sky, in the sky
They got the planes and satellites
Yeah, airplanes and satellites
Whoa, whoa
In the sky, in the sky, in the sky, in the sky
They got the planes and satellites
Yeah, airplanes and satellites
Whoa, whoa
When I was a boy
I remember livin' in the streets
I didn't have enough to eat
It was a misery, yeah
But I could wake up
And look up in the sky
Hoping that God's light
Would shine on me, yeah yeah
In the sky, in the sky, in the sky, in the sky
They got the planes and satellites
Yeah, airplanes and satellites

Whoa, whoa In the sky, in the sky, in the sky, in the sky
They got the planes and satellites
Yeah, airplanes and satellites
Whoa, whoa

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnllyrics.com/>