

Lonely

Jaheim

If you didn't ask, then he wouldn't tell
But the truth is you're goin' through hell
But you hide it so well, so well You tug on his sleeve, you beg and you plead
Anything so that he won't leave
He would be like oh well, oh well And half of the time you knew he was lyin'
Said he was on his rizzily grind
He's providin' so well And now he's out there runnin' game on you
I'll be there at the drop of a dime
And when he thinks you're at home with the kids
On the couch watchin' TV all the time If you think you're lonely now
Oh baby, I'm on my way
Wait until tonight, girl
'Cause I'm comin' to scoop you up You got the kinda love
Never get enough of messin' bedspreads up
It's all up to you
Wait until tonight, girl If you think you're lonely now
Oh baby, I'm on my way
Wait until tonight, girl
And you can be back before he even knows you're gone Take you to the peak of ecstasy, come on
It's all up to you
Wait until tonight, girl
Oh baby, I'm on my way Durin' love makin' we lose control of ourselves
Diggin' in my back with your nails
But you do it so well And we both fall asleep then your Sidekick beeps
Angry messages he left on your cell
You know he's gonna yell, oh well Do you think he suspects us? Picked up on the trail?
Think it's time you sit him down and tell
'Cause he knows you so well And now he's out there runnin' game on you
I'll be there at the drop of a dime
And when he thinks you're at home with the kids
On the couch watchin' TV all the time If you think you're lonely now
Oh baby, I'm on my way
Wait until tonight, girl
'Cause I'm comin' to scoop you up You got the kinda love
Never get enough of messin' bedspreads up
It's all up to you
Wait until tonight, girl If you think you're lonely now
Oh baby, I'm on my way
Wait until tonight, girl

And you can be back before he even knows you're gone Take you to the peak of ecstasy, come on

It's all up to you

Wait until tonight, girl

Oh baby, I'm on my way For every broken date you promised

For all the lies that you could've been honest

And for your Sandra she found a Robert

I'll get right there, if you think she's lonely now For every little dream you sold her

For the night you wasn't at home to hold her

After the drama, here comes the karma

If you think she's lonely now If you think you're lonely now

Oh baby, I'm on my way

Wait until tonight, girl

'Cause I'm comin' to scoop you up You got the kinda love

Never get enough of messin' bedspreads up

It's all up to you

Wait until tonight, girl If you think you're lonely now

Oh baby, I'm on my way

Wait until tonight, girl

And you can be back before he even knows your gone Take you to the peak of ecstasy, come on

It's all up to you

Wait until tonight

Oh baby, I'm on my way
