The Show, Pt. 2

The Show (Part 2)

The show, the cheers
Seems like a million years
And I can hardly wait to put it to you
The glow, the sights
Movin the speed of light
Can you feel it come all over you

I wanna pierce your heart
I wanna hear you scream
I wanna be your everything
And when you take it off
I wanna get you off
We'll take a little trip around the world

Electric purple on a gypsy crush
Pump and shift full gyration tease

Are you amped enough?
Are you hot enough?
No right or wrong they're selling their old souls
Are you sick enough?
Are you suck enough?
We're toxic and we're ready for the show

The world, the fame
No love, no need, no pain
I get to do another number for you
No need to wait
Just leave it all to fate
And then I'll put it to ya one more time

Twist it faster surge in crossfire lust
I'm gonna be your Superstar

Are you amped enough?
Are you hot enough?
No right or wrong they're selling their old souls
Are you sick enough?

Are you suck enough?
We're toxic and we're ready for the show

I wanna pierce your heart
I wanna hear you scream
I wanna be your everything
And when you take it off
I wanna get you off
I wanna take ride around the world
I wanna take a trip around the world
I wanna take a trip around the world

Are you sick enough?
Are you suck enough?
No right or wrong they're selling their old souls
Are you amped enough?
Are you hot enough?
We're toxic and we're ready for the show
Are you high enough?
Are you fucked enough?
No right or wrong they're selling their old souls
Are you amped enough?
Are you hot enough?
We're toxic and we're ready for the show
