

Demon Code

Annihilator

I've got a little secret my brains on fire
They are the trapped voices coming from the devils own choir
(devils choir)
Feels like I'm just pretending that everything is fine
Am I the only one with this or is it mine all mine
(said is it mine)Deep in the dark
Thoughts they haunt you
Bored in the mind
They come when they want to
Push them aside
And try to control them
They wait to get inside
To rule you once again
She looks so fuckin good but I can never tell
My fantasies and imagination once sent me right down to hell
(they sent me to hell fuck)
Wish me as many times you like but if you only knew
I might be at the breaking point and if I am your time is through (yeah your time is through)Deep in the dark
Thoughts they haunt you
Bored in the mind
They come when they want to
Push them aside
And try to control them
They wait to get inside
To rule you once againScreaming for attention am I the only one who sees
Twisted illusions reality is my disease
Demented frightened visions try to take control
This evil passenger is living deep down in my soul
(in the soul)
They say it lives in all of us living on the edge
Gotta keep it all together now or it'll push you off the ledge
(off the ledge hey hey)Deep in the dark
Thoughts they haunt you
Bored in the mind
They come when they want to
Push them aside
And try to control them
They wait to get inside

To rule you once again
