

White Devil Rise

Danzig

white
devil rise you speak my name, I do not mind to give me credit is so kind I'm flattered that I have your fear you wake the sleeping demon here white
rise I hear the lies brotherhood at my side you call me white, you bet I am now see my beast rise up in flames white
rise stare at the ashes of the ages stand a devil up inside pray to a god that cannot help you my beast will feast upon his eyes white
rise
