

Body

Young Galaxy

I don't know what I'm trying to say
I can only show you
I don't know what I'm trying to say
I can only show you If im just a body
Will you still want me?
If im just a body
Will you still want me?
If i'm just a body?
And I feel everything all at once
Whether or not I want to
And I feel everything all at once
Whether or not I want to If im just a body
Will you still want me?
If im just a body
Will you still want me?
If i'm just a body? I'm floating away from the world
Like a helium ballon
I'm floating away from the world
Like a helium ballon Can't say what I want to, can't pull down the light
I'm lost in my insides, cut off from my sight
I wander beyondwards right into the dark, to lay myself down and be
I'm just a body
I'm just a body
Show me you want me
Show me you want me
Show me you want me
Show me you want me
