

True Metal (Remastered)

Wizard

Why don't you open your eyes
You are false and we are true
Shut up and listen what we say
Shut your mouth
It's better you get out of my way
Kiss our asses

Bridge: We play more metal than the most people can take
Bad reviews and fat ass critics we don't care
We play metal for all metal heads

And not for
Rotten poser rats

Refrain:

True Metal

The sounds of our hearts

We will never be apart

True Metal

The sense of our lives

Deceivers

Our victory is your doom

Don't try so stop us 'cause we are too strong

The wall on which you'll be crushed

The day we meet you will never forget

We are not born to serve

We are born to rule

BridgeRefrain

We play metal loud and proud

Smashing enemies to the ground

Born to play the metal sound

By true metal we are bound

We don't care what you say

Here what we pray
