Saturday morning the sun is high so I can underline

 All of my hopes to get out from my tears

 So I, I can brightenWill be sunshine in me

 I'm living a life inside a broken life

 Will be sunshine in me

I'm living a life inside a blinding lifeEveryday morning I can play with the sun but I see you again

 I wanna forget all your lies so I can go ahead, so I amI can't stand off it

 I'm turning around the same thoughts behind

 I can't stand off it

I'm turning around the same thoughts behindSaturday morning the sun is high so I can underline

 All of my hopes to get out from my tears

 So I, I can brightenWill be sunshine in me

 I'm living a life inside a broken life

 Will be sunshine in me

I'm living a life inside a blinding lifeI can't stand off it

 I'm turning around the same thoughts behind

 I can't stand off it

I'm turning around the same thoughts behindEveryday morning I can play with the sun but I see you again

 I wanna forget all your lies so I can go ahead, so I amI can't stand off it

 I'm turning around the same thoughts behind

 I can't stand off it

 I'm turning around the same thoughts beh
