

A New Plan for Domination

Embrace Destruction

this is the truth (x)
bound to violence
accept yourself (x)
open your eyes and take a look at this world never think (that) using your mind is a weakness the only ones that betray are the ones that make you believe that here you are safe crucified to an aimless cost and delivered to the kings of the corporation
this is the truth (x)
accept yourself (x)
how can't you see that this culture is so rotten inside where nothing grows and everything is dying and you cannot react cause they see date your denial you are just opening the gates coward
you are opening the gates of the apocalypse this society has no regard for human life money is created out of nothing creating debt this debt is paid by you and to pay you need to work everything in your life is controlled in the name of profit you ask to have this system as you depend on your possessions and that's the plan for domination wake up
this is domination
and we are slaves (x)
wellfare its warfare
