Splinter

Candiria

In your space I feel lesser than human, a slave
Pushed down with shame on my face
You're a god for an hour but what have you done
That gave you the right, gave you the right to kill meCut out the splinter, cut me away
Cut it out, cut it out
You think you're better than meYou think you kill me, cut out the splinter
Last thing I will remember in the end
You think you kill me, cut out the splinter
Go now, live in failure, your faith was spoken
Now you mean nothingWhat a waste of my time as I follow the dead
Your fake ass celebrity [Incomprehensible]
So now what's the leader doing?
What have you done? You got no more fightGave you the right to kill me
Cut out the splinter, cut me away
Cut it out, cut it outYou think you kill me, cut out the splinter
Last thing I will remember in the end
You think you kill me, cut out the splinter
Go now, live in failure, your faith was spoken
Now you mean nothing, nothingAm I the splinter in your life?
Cut me away, cut me away, cutYou think you kill me, cut out the splinter
Last thing I will remember in the end
You think you kill me, cut out the splinter
Go now, live in failure, your faith was spoken
Now you mean nothing, nothing
