Alibi

Tait

I'm trying hard to understand you
And your over-rated state of mind
Sometimes you try to move me to you
And make believe that it's all fineAnd you say you love me, yes you do
But I know who I'm talking to
You left me so lonely and emptyAnd I don't need your alibis
'Cause I can see through all your lies
You say you love me and I'll need you
But I don't need to live my life that way, no wayEvery storm deserves an ending
And a break to peaceful skies
And every night I pray for my own mendingAnd you say you love me, yes you do
But I know who I'm talking to
You left me so lonely and emptyAnd I don't need your alibis
'Cause I can see through all your disguise
You say you love me and I'll need you
But I don't need to live my life that way, no wayParading around like you're a superstar
Is that who you think you are
The higher you go, yeah, the harder you fall
Oh yeahYou say you love me, yes you do
But I know who I'm talking to
You left me so lonely and emptyAnd I don't need your alibis
'Cause I can see through your disguise
You say you love me and I'll need you
But I don't need to live my life that way, no wayYou say you love me and I'll need you
But I don't need to live my life that way, no way
