

No Room for Us

Lovely Quinces

The house you built for us will fall apart
there is no room for us and for all of our hearts and all the horses you bought were sick or died in the window of your faith there is no light

uuuuuuu

Words are written down we thrown them in the flames of our fireplace where we called the saints and I dont care what they say they wont keep my love caged feeling you inside of me makes me call Gods name uuuuuuuu

if we try to change and learn how to love maybe god will let us have some fun
