

Devout Atrocity

Dying Fetus

Engulfed by fate
Knowing you're part of, foretold prophecy
Awaiting the future
Post-apocalyptic visions you see them
Nearing tsunami
Cleansing the world of all inhabitants
Dormant volcanoes
Rapidly awakened, spewing out torment
Impending, Calamities come forth
Anxious from
Prospects of affliction, blissful
Revelations, religion, clairvoyance, self assured
Proactive, actions to be taken, bring about
Armageddon the end that nears
Without warning to the nonbelievers
Trying to facilitate
Precursor anarchy proliferation
The credulous populace
Ready to partake, extensive indiscretion
Cynics that are only interested
In disruption
Join festivities
Tearing down the entire system
They believe
Will be no more
Acting out final impulse,
Boundless juncture
Looming devastation
Awaiting the ultimate release
Of death
Relish the undertaking
Enlisting anyone who will wreck
Configuration
Of the status quo
Feeding paranoia to the rest
Of what's next
Riots the beginning
Constructing revolution,
Loosely bound
The chaotic notion
Preach to leave caution to the wind,
No more sin

End of days is hereLiving in the frenzy so surreal
Ignoring possible extinction
Preparation after thoughtConspiracy consume many of them
What they new when and how
Goverment coverup primary beef
Not uninhibited extermination
Staring down the end of a barrel
Not fazed by threat oblivious
Still exasperated no warning given
Observing aristocracy full disregardLiving in the frenzy so surreal
Ignoring possible extinction
Preparation after thoughtPeasants following their trendy causes
Forgetting the grand scheme of things
If predictions of events prove true
So many left to fend off annihilationIgnoring mass extinctionCracks in the earth seperate, devastation
Ash covered sky, enveloping darkness
Spreading fire burns everything unrestrained
Inhospitable indefinite wasteland
Methane lakes emerge poisonous
AsphyxiationMass extinction
