

Nite & Day (feat. Big Daddy Kane)

Marco Polo

Tell me this baller image that you make yourself
Creating an illusion, you got cake yourself
Not trying to be a lie, you're a fake yourself
Aight, keep fucking around, you're gonna break yourself
You got a misconception about what real is Spoiling out your 300, but you know what it still is
From empty to pimply, it's simply not a Bentley
This ain't about movie, just let be what meant be
To floss in extremes, you took your game
But shit, that chicks white gold and platinum look the same
You in your zone, tricking on Patron
With more shots of silver than a werewolf, be careful
Before we go and say he in the clean
The best way to test is an ATM machine
Here's a fact, younging, and this is true
If you gotta check your balance, then that shit ain't for you
For real
Shit, baby girl you said you don't feel appealing
Your body started changing and now you ain't feeling like you worthy no more
Them breasts ain't looking pirky no more
Them dudes ain't acting thirsty no more
You wondering if you had your break yet
And sitting at the bar not know what to think yet
Cause not one baller bought you a drink yet
And some young chick got on the same matching pink set
Up under your arms you see your little bit flap
Forget that, shakeweights can't fix that
Used to come up in the club and then spot your drama
Now somebody's ass and they [?] mama
Them prom queen days is long gone
Time to realize you playing the wrong song
Every young boy don't understand
And that probably means it's time for a grown ass man
For real
Every minute that we be pretending to be
Something that we're not, we cause of an image we see
Lost in the Wheel Of Fortune, well, spin it and see
Instead of fronting I'mma show you ain't no limit to me
You programmed to do what people commonly like

Bringing harm in your life, you need that garmen advice
To navigate you from what fascinate you
Just cause that's what they do, kid, you have to stay true
For real
