Already Mine

Us The Duo

Where did it go
The love I once knew
Is lost in the dark
The light cant shine through
Where did we go
I can't see it now
We're fighting the night
To find you some howI miss you
Even though you're so close
I miss you
Even you're right next to me
I already have you
But I wanna know you again
So hard to kiss you
When it feels like I'm only a friend
I can't control you
Or what your heart will decide
But I'll never stop
Trying to fall back in love with what's already mineWhere did it go
The passion and fire
I can't find the flame
And now we're both tired
What do we do
If all we have left
Is dying for life
And on it's last breath
And I miss you
Even though you're so close
I miss you
Even you're right next to meI already have you
But I wanna know you again
So hard to kiss you
When it feels like I'm only a friend
I can't control you
Or what your heart will decide
I'll never stop
trying to fall back in love with what's already mineIf we fight we through this battle
And we
We'll be stronger

Than who we were then
I already have youI wanna know you again
So hard to kiss you
When it feels like I'm only a friend
I can't control you
Or what your heart will decide
I'll never stop
trying to fall back in love with what's already mineohhhI miss you
I miss you
I miss you.
