

Three Hearts

Marlon Roudette

Early break, early break
Early break, early breakCause at me is a battle ground
But I don't want to turn around
You see, voice doesn't fade
Words I heard you say
I'll remember 'til the end of my daysThere's a rumour going around
And I'll never leave it down
Courses to my veins
Those are the snakes I made
I'll remember 'til the end of my daysThese three hearts beat as one
They're joined together
These three hearts
Come on down
Just the same, down to the leader
It's funny how little things
Finally break our little wings
And we'll come crashing downNothing can erase
This fall from grace
I'll remember 'til the end of my daysEarly break, early break
Early break, early breakEverything is right now
And sunny days are right now
But I convince myself
The blame lies in everyone else
And we all understand there are laws to the land
They decrease, a faithful pain
And I'll remember 'til the end of my days
These three hearts beat as one
They're joined together
These three hearts
Come on down
Just the same, down to the leaderIt's funny how little things
Finally break our little wings
And we'll come crashing downNothing can erase
This fall from grace
I'll remember 'til the end of my daysAnd we all understand
There are falls
And they won't forget our ways
They'll remember 'til the end of our daysThese three hearts beat as one
They're joined together

These three hearts
Come on down
Just the same, down to the leaderIt's funny how little things
Finally break our little wings
And we'll come crashing downCause nothing can erase
This fall from grace
No, nothing can erase
This fall from grace
I'll remember 'til the end of my daysEarly break, early break
Early break, early break
