

I Worship Only What You Bleed (live)

The Black Dahlia Murder

Oh, it's flowing through me
Combusting with contempt
Rationality abandoning
Chemically lead astray Stepping outside the confines of this circle
Bane of society become
I'm about to cross the line and take a life
Nothing can stop me now Murderous functioning
An animal within me speaks
Nothing but blood could satisfy
These carnal needs I am your master
Superior I reign
Poised just above you
On this death distorted chain The need to kill transcends temptation
I'm sick and in need of blood
Withdrawals haunt me, taunt me sickly baiting
My deeds can never be undone Murderous functioning
An animal within me speaks
Nothing but blood could satisfy
These carnal needs I am your shepherd
Cloaked in obscenity
Heed these sickening words
I worship only what you bleed I am your master
Superior I reign
Poised just above you
On this death distorted chain
