

You

End of Green

It was a Friday night
About a quarter to eight
We should have met for lunch
You were really late
We-oh oh-oh
What was going on? I took my car, drove past the mall
I saw you making out at the arcade hall
I know, you know, they know
I want everybody to know You take what you want
Then tear it apart
You're not that cool
And I don't get your breakup rules
Called you Thursday night, you said all
Was fine
Then you cut me off you had another line
We-oh oh-oh
Hope that you're ok Now I feel trashed Alice Cooper sings
Love hurts good... guess you know that thing?
I know, you know, they know
I want everybody to know You take what you want
Then tear it apart
You're not that cool
And I don't get your breakup rules Something wasn't right
Should have never said I loved you
At prom night
Why'd you have to go?
Why'd you leave me at that guns&roses show?
You take what you want
Then tear it apart
You're not that cool
And I don't get your breakup rules
