Right Now, I'm Anyone's

Deaf Havana

There's been a terrible account of words
This even is just like any other, baby
Except tonight
I'm not so down in the dirt

I'm a hopeless romantic with good intentions
But I always fail to false accusation
It's always got me landing firmly on my feet
But I'll get you one day, honey

Don't make a sound, we can't afford to be heard
We can't afford to be heard

If you wanna come home to a bed of roses
I'll cut my arm before the night closes
If you wanna come home to another best friend
I'll swallow viagra just to start a trend

Don't make a sound, we can't afford to be heard
We can't afford to be heard
Let's crack the buzz fizz, baby
'cause you know we're gonna party tonight

And this is far too obvious, dangerous attempt
At something just a little bit more than you ever asked for
I'm successfully a fuck up
And everyone seems to know

And this is far too obvious, dangerous attempt
At something just a little bit more than you ever asked for

There's been a terrible account of words
This evening is just like any other, baby
Except tonight

Don't make a sound, we can't afford to be heard
We can't afford to be heard

Let's crack the buzz fizz, baby
(don't make a sound, we can't afford to be heard)

(we can't afford to be heard)
'Cause you know we're going to party tonight
