Welcome to the new world
From the tummy of such a mighty little girl
For the rest of all my days when I say beautiful, you're beautiful
I'll be always talking about you or your mom, now hey

Welcome to the new world
From the tummy of such a mighty little girl
I can't find a better reason to live for I'm here for...

Welcome to the new world
From the tummy of such a mighty little girl

For the rest of all my days when I say beautiful, you're beautiful
I'll be always talking about you or your mom, now hey

Welcome to the new world
From the tummy of such a mighty little girl
I can't find a better reason to live for I'm here for...

I'm not gonna say it, no I'll never, I'll just keep it in my arms

She'll be always mine you better keep that in your mind

Exception will be never made in case of any kind

I kept that oath my very first but you're the one who broke that first

Listen to me; I'll never say twice, I won't tell you much

So be strong not fist more deeper in you
I'll always love you but second to your mom, of course
I can't give it youWhen ever you're in lack of some warmth
Or maybe some time you feel hopeless
There's nothing better to touch
I guarantee you that, little boy
