

Sensitivity

New Edition

Listen, baby, don't even waste your tears on an insensitive man
There's better things for you
I mean, what you really need is someone who cares
Someone who's gonna be there for you, someone like me, baby
Someone with sensitivity
Ooh, do you understand? Can you feel it? Hey, no, no, no, no
Girl, I know it's been hard since he went away
And left you so sad, you cry everyday
Let me kiss your tears, erase all your doubt
'Cause for you I'm here, you won't be without love, listen, baby
Don't need a man that'll give you money
Come on, let me show you just what you need, honey
I got what you need
Don't need a man that'll treat you funny
You need a man with sensitivity, a man like me
Someone who can love you, someone who will need you
Someone who will treat you right, like me, girl
Someone you can hold at night, someone stable in your life
Oh baby, you need a man with sensitivity, a man like me
Baby, honey, there ain't another man
Oh, you know, you know, honey, like I do, baby
Hang in there, hang on in there, baby, ooh
'Cause you need a man with sensitivity, you need a man like me
You see you need someone who's there like a gentleman
If anybody can fit the description, baby, I can Someone who cares and dares to give himself completely?
You got it in me, you need a man with sensitivity
You need a man, not any man
Warm and sensitive, that's what I can give
You need a man, not any man
Warm and sensitive, that's what I can give
You need a man, not any man
Warm and sensitive, that's what I can give (I'm a gentleman)
Man with sensitivity, a man like me
(Man, a man, yeah)
Don't need a man that'll give you money
(Don't need a man, ooh)
Come on, let me show you just what you need, honey
(Oh, I've got what you need, baby)
Don't need a man that'll treat you funny
(I'm a gentleman at heart)
You need a man with sensitivity, a man like me
Save a little love for me, sensitivity
(Save it, baby)
Baby, I got what you need, sensitivity

(I got it)
Save a little love for me, sensitivity
(Save a little love for me)
Man with sensitivity, a man like me
(Hold on, hold on, man, ooh) Hold on my darlin', don't let me down, hold on my darlin'
Man with sensitivity, a man like me
Don't need a man that'll give you money
Don't need a man that'll I should know Don't need a man that'll treat you funny
Don't need a man that'll I should know
Don't need a man that'll give you money
Don't need a man that'll, gentleman
Oh, sugar, no, no, no, no
