Day by Day

Useless ID

Another endless day, I couldn't find
A way to spend some time on writing
Songs with stupid meanings I can't findA way to make some sense, my mind is such A mess, my girlfriend says I really
Suck and that my thoughts, I can't expressAnother sunny day, still I can't find
A way how to describe just what I
Feel maybe my brain is holding stillAnd if there's a better way for me to sing
And play it must be silence, I'm so poor
But there's one thing I know for sureCan't be wrong, can't belong to what I thought that I once were Can't be right, cannot fight for something that's not worth it
Who's to blame, what a shame I don't really care at allAnother rainy day, can't find a better
Way to give a meaning to it
All, I guess my luck is very smallWhen I woke up today, drunk from Yesterday, I know tomorrow will be
The same, it's only me I have to blame
