Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Holla bloody merry look into the eyes of the demon when u see a thug like that keep screaming i smoke green with the reapor i'm from the ghetto got paid with the gad and the beeper just a young thug tryin to make it visualize me in ghetto in these fools tryin to break me kill me for my weed and my hindesee young villians when im gone wont remember me greeting women be my past time live the life of the hustler came up on ghetto ryme 17, rouse for the busters keep 2 for the klucksters i got 45's knives and gads cockes young homies banging for the size of my glock in the average age is 25 young homies dont even live to retire get paid puff what slang keys
die for the triple gold
