

Sunny and 75

Joe Nichols

Verse 1:

A yellow two piece, black Ray Bans
Your bare feet, covered in sand
White Jet trails across the blue sky
Your pony tail showing off the sunshine
Like a lost card, out of no where
You get to me, you give me that smile and
I'm somewhere, somewhere sunny and 75
You and me on a beach chair
Yeah I'm so there every time I look in your eyes
Kissing you and the salt air
I can taste it, I swear

Take me somewhere sunny and 75

Verse 2:
It doesn't take much for you to move me

Just the way you're leaning in to me
It's a holiday when we're together
I wanna stay with you forever
Chorus:
Somewhere, somewhere sunny and 75
You and me on a beach chair
Yeah I'm so there every time I look in your eyes
Kissing you and the salt air
I can taste it, I swear

Take me somewhere sunny and 75

Verse 3:
You're like the fast lane West bound
You feel like the window's rolled down
I can't wait until we get there, somewhere
Chorus:
Somewhere, somewhere sunny and 75
You and me on a beach chair
Yeah I'm so there every time I look in your eyes
Kissing you and the salt air
I can taste it, I swear

Take me somewhere sunny and 75

Sunny and 75
