Well Absolutely

Body Language

Take a little bit of this, here
And a sip of this, "Not so fast"
Too early in the evening still a babyWe should make a date to drink
We make some friends, no spends
We run into some craziesI know that you have desires
And some other matters that you require
And you're tired so let's be liarsDo you really wanna be somebody?
So just call and say, "Hey!"
Would you like to hop a gate to the other world
Well yeah absolutelyYou don't wanna be somebody?
So just call and say, "Hey!"
Would you like to hop a gate to the other world
Well yeah absolutelyTake a minute if you need to breathe
As a girl age 17, running down the avenue, avenue
And your eyes got watery, from all the hollering
Morning til the afternoon, afternoonAnd know it's never better
All tomorrows parties gonna be better, so whatever, whatev'sDo you really wanna be somebody?
So just call and say, "Hey!"
Would you like to hop a gate to the other world
Well yeah absolutelyYou don't wanna be somebody?
So just call and say, "Hey!"
Would you like to hop a gate to the other world
Well yeah absolutely
