

One Is Such a Lonely Number (Demo September 1987)

Roxette

I never knew when you walked in the room.
I sold my soul to a stranger, an angel face yea.
I never had this kind of sight before,
This kind of vision white, hang on tight yea.
I don't know, girl, you've been around.

Don't you go, don't you let me down. One is such a lonely number, to make the world go round.
Three is just a little too much to touch, now honey, to make the world go round and round and round.

One is such a lonely number. I think about what this has done to me.

I'm going back to the start, back to school days.

I never had this urge inside of me,
To hear the sound of a heart fill the airwaves.

There's a love line, it's tied to the ground.

Leave you here, never let you down. One is such a lonely number, to make the world go round.
Three is just a little too much to touch, now honey, to make the world go round and round and round.

One is such a lonely number, to mend a broken heart.

Three is just a little too much to touch, hey honey, to make the world go round and round and round and round.
There's a love line, it's tied to the ground. leave you here, never let you down.

One is such a lonely number, to make the world go round.

Three is just a little too much to touch, now honey, to make the world go round and round and round.

One is such a lonely number, to mend a broken heart.

Three is just a little too much to touch, hey honey, to make the world go round and round and round. One is such a lonely number, to make the world go round...
