What Happens Next

Slick Shoes

I can't believe what he's done for me
And it makes me want to cry
I don't know why you put me here
But I'm sure you have your reasonsWhy have you put me here?
Don't get me wrong, I'm not complaining
I don't know what's gonna happen next
But my faith's in you
I don't know what's gonna happen next
But my faith's in you
You've gotten me this farMy life is going so fast
I need to sit back and take it all in Without God, I wouldn't be here nowWhy have you put me here?
Don't get me wrong, I'm not complaining
I don't know what's gonna happen next
But my faith's in you
I don't know what's gonna happen next
But my faith's in you
You've gotten me this farMy dreams are turning into everyday life
Things I thought would never happen are happening all the time
All my wishes are coming true because of you
All my dreams are coming trueAnd I don't know what's gonna happen next
And I don't know what's gonna happen next
And I don't know what's gonna happen next
And I don't know what's gonna happen next
