Neurotica Rampage

Soilwork

Neurotica you player and daughter of mine
Don't you think I know what's all behind
I suck on your evil
Punches that my grants soul tumble and rollYou give me strength to break my chains
Demonic assaults is all that remains
Raising hell within my veins
Claim it's right to play those games
You're making me repeat myself againBury the hatchet, light my torch
A true believer, a deadly force
You're making my sore eyes live againThe wrath of my demon
Is all that I can give back to you
No use for solitude
It's better to be burned
And not to learn that your master will returnYou give me strength to break my chains
Demonic assaults is all that remains
Raising hell within my veins
Claim it's right to play those games
You're making me repeat myself againBury the hatchet, light my torch
A true believer, a deadly force
You're making my sore eyes live againHear! Hear them say it's so clear
What's behind and so near
Hear them say it's so clear
That you're one of themLook at the inside and tell me
That everything there is so sane
You're so affective and only got your roots to blamedYou give me strength to break my chains
Demonic assaults is all that remains
Raising hell within my veins
Claim it's right to play those games
You're making me repeat myself againBury the hatchet, light my torch
A true believer, a deadly force
You're making my sore eyes live againHear! Hear them say it's so clear
What's behind and so near
Hear them say it's so clear
That you're one of themHear! Hear them say it's so clear
What's behind and so near
Hear them say it's so clear
That you're one of themYou give me strength to break my chains
Demonic assaults is all that remainsHear! Hear them say it's so clear
What's behind and so near

Hear them say it's so clear
That you're one of themHear! Hear them say it's so clear
What's behind and so near
Hear them say it's so clear
