This Girl

She Tells Lies

There's this girl, the one and only wonder of this world (my world)
And it don't matter if the road gets rough (yeah) if me rich or poor (yeah)
She stay down with me if me go to war (my girl)
Verse:
Love you cuz you are, every single star
In the constellation, that's enlightening my heart
Special gift from Jah, wherever you are
Girl you got more presence than a hundred santa clauses,
And I know (I know) we'll stand together when the world falls down
And I know (I know) that our forever's gonna start right now, yeah
Chorus:
There's this girl, the one and only wonder of this world (my world)
And it don't matter if the road gets rough (yeah) if me rich or poor (yeah)
She stay down with me if me go to war (my girl)
There's this girl, the one and only wonder of this world (my world)
And it don't matter if the road gets rough (yeah) if me rich or poor (yeah)
She stay down with me till we in the floor (my girl)
Verse:
These are hardest times, love's so hard to find

Blessed is the man who has a woman at his side
This for you I write, never do me wrong
If you're ever missing me just listen to this song
And you know (you know) we lay together when the sun goes down
And I know (I know) still be together when it comes back 'round (back round, yeah)
Chorus:
There's this girl, the one and only wonder of this world (my world)
And it don't matter if the road gets rough (yeah) if me rich or poor (yeah)
She stay down with me if me go to war (my girl)
There's this girl, the one and only wonder of this world (my world)
And it don't matter if the road gets rough (yeah) if me rich or poor (yeah)
She stay down with me till we in the floor (my girl)
I said she stay down with me if me go to war
I said she stay down with me till we in the floor
Outro:
Girl give me everything I need
She's there every time I call upon her, ya know?
My Girl, it's Laza...
