

Hard To Be A Rock

Brad Cotter

Sometimes it's hard to be a rock and show the world you're strong.

When your barley gettin' by but your the one their countin' on

You gotta find your own reward in little pieces of their love

And never let them see any thought of given up.Someday this rocks gonna get on a roll,

Find a way to get ahead of these dues I've paid.

I know there's an eagle in my soul and he's going to learn to fly

Somehow, someday.Sometimes it's hard to be a rock to you and no one else

You put the hurt down deep and you keep it to yourself

You wanna go out and get stoned and find out how you feel,

But the whiskey makes you dream, and the wakin' up is real.Someday this rocks gonna get on a roll,

Find a way to get ahead of these dues I've paid.

I know there's an eagle in my soul and he's going to learn to fly

Somehow, someday.The wind, the rain, the cold, the pain will grind you and try to make you break

But the good Lord never gives you more than you can takeSomeday this rocks gonna get on a roll

Find a way to get ahead of these dues I've paid.

I know there's an eagle in my soul and he's going to learn to fly somehowSomeday this rocks gonna get on a roll

Find a way to get ahead of these dues I've paid.

I know there's an eagle in my soul and he's going to learn to fly

Somehow, someday

Songwriters

BOGARD, STEVE/COTTER, BRAD/GILES, RICHARD C.Published by

Lyrics Â© Warner/Chappell Music, Inc. Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnlyrics.com/>