Ghost

Skid Row

"Ghost"
I feel the things I said but never said how I felt I know I waited much too long could I get it in your head without a head full of doubt looking back it seems that I went about it all wrong Lying alone in the bed we made watching headlights on the shades the ghosts that sleeping by your side are my promises to you that died to you that died Wasn't long ago when forever was our friend but now freedom's what I feel inside it hurts so much to let you go to know we'll never touch again when I walk if I fall down can I take it in stride

Lying alone in the bed we made
watching headlights on the shades
the ghosts that sleeping by your side
are my promises to you that died
to you that died
I might let you go, but i'll never go away I might let you go, but i'll never go away...yeah
I feel the things I said
but never said how I felt
I know I waited much too long
Lying alone in the bed we made
watching headlights on the shades
the ghosts that sleeping by your side are my promises to that died lying alone in the bed we made
watching headlights on the shades
the ghosts that sleeping by your side
are my promises to you that died

to you that died
to you that died.

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/