

(i Just) Died In Your Arms Tonight

Smokie

I just died in your arms tonight,
it must've been something you said
I just died in your arms tonight Woah I keep looking for something i can't get Broken hearts lie all around me
And i don't see an easy way to get out of this Oh
A diary sits by the bedside table
The curtains are closed the cat's in the cradle But who would've thought a boy like me would come to this Woah I,
I just died in your arms tonight
it must've been something you said
I just died in your arms tonight
Woah I,
I just died in your arms tonight
it must've been some kinda kiss
I should have walked away
I should have walked away
I should have walked away Is there any good coarse for feeling like this cause on the surface i'm just a name on a list I tried to be descreet but then i screwed up again
I'm lost and found, this is my final mistake She's loving by proxy, no giving all take Cause i've been through the fantasy one to many times Woah I,
I just died in your arms tonight
it must've been something you said
I just died in your arms tonight
Woah I,
I just died in your arms tonight
it must've been some kinda kiss
I should have walked away It was a long, hot night
She made it easy, she made me feel right
And now it's over, the moment's gone
I followed my hands, not my head, i was wrong Woah
I just died in your arms tonight
it must've been something you said
I just died tonight

Woah I,
I just died in your arms tonight
it must've been some kinda kiss
I should have walked away
I should have walked away
I should have walked away
I should have walked away
I should have, I should have I should have walked
I should have walked away
