

Nothing's Worth Losing You

Johnny Lima

what happens now where do we go
i told you everything you need to know before you leave
i wanna say i dont blame you if its hard for you to stay sorry that i lert you down but i had to tell the truth cause i cant live i lie i did something wrong to you and i wanna make it right i hate to see you go
and find a better man
cause i dont wanna be alone but i will understand and i never will forget
what i put you through
i'll always remember
that nothing's worth losing you no, nothing's worth losing you no...

I wish i could go back to that day right before the moment i made my mistake i'm ashamed of what i've become but i cant change what's already done i'm sorry that i broke your heart
cause i cant live a lie

but i would understand
and I never will forget what i put you through
