That Life

Nick Gill

One more year in Fairhope
One more homecoming game
One more time I'll try for you and our love
Won't reign, it won't reign

I know I won't be another one, I know they're all
The same, looking for another dime and someone else
To blame, I know I won't lie in bed at night thinking about how I
Could've had that life

The classroom doesn't tell it all
Their brain gets big while my ego grows small
I know, I know, I'm hanging on a limb ready to catch
My fall
