Darkened Days

Fallen Horizon

The world was empty and I was lost for words.
Persecuted, It hurts to hate you.
[You always said i should fear no death,
but now that he stands here, I'm so afraid.] x2
There are so many words left unspoken.
Let me ask one thing - will I return?[Chorus]
Cut the loop around my neck
Before I kick the chair away.
We all tend to seek the darker times.
A million times flashes right before my eyes.A slave to no one but still I wonder
Why do the poison taste so sweet.
[You always said I should fear no death.
But now that he stands here, I'm so afraid.] x2
Years has passed, no lesson learned.
Still standing right here what we called home.[Chorus]
Cut the loop around my neck
Before I kick the chair away.
We all tend to seek the darker times.
A million times flashes right before my eyes.Don't you see the blood on you hands.
Don't you see the blood.
At the bottom I find salvation !Breakaway, there's no use to stay.
You can't make a faithless man believe.
[You always said i should fear no death.
But now that he stands here, I'm so afraid.] x2
At the edge of sanity. Sleepless nights.
Get me out alive ![Chorus]
Cut the loop around my neck
Before I kick the chair away.
We all tend to seek the darker times.
A million times flashes right before my eyes.
