

Let's Not Get Carried Away

Wilco

I got a million better things to do
Than to play rock 'n' roll
Honey, if I blow your fuse
Can I please be excused?Gotta right myself today
I can't right myself for you
We haven't even been introduced
So that'll never doThough a lot of other people could
Standing here instead of me
Singing their own lines
Through clenching, cracking teethGotta right myself today
Gotta right myself for you
Honey, if I tell you the truth
Can I please be excused?Honey, let's not get carried awayThere's a lot of other places to be
A lot of things I would rather be doing
A lot of songs I'd love to sing
But I know that you would just ruin itGotta right myself today
I gotta right myself for you
Honey, if I tell you the truth
Can I please be excused?Honey, let's not get carried awayGotta right myself today
I gotta right myself for you
Honey, if I tell you the truth
Can I please be excused?
