This Is Where My Heart Lies

Stick To Your Guns

I will stay true to this, I won't fall
This means more now than ever before
Your doubt drives me, and I bite my tongue
You hate me, and everything I am
And everything I believe
Say what you will, 'cause I have learned
To turn the other cheekSay what you will (x2)This is mine, this is for me
We will rise up together
We are one, we are family
This world will bring us down
But it can't tear apart -it can't tear apart
This familyBe strong, keep your head up
Because this struggle will only get
Harder to handle (x2)This is where my heart lies (x13)
