Bad

Arthur Walwin

I fell asleep on her floor last night babe.
Left my phone on the side.
I didn't hear my alarm or your seven missed calls I swear down.And I know nothing about all those pictures that she took in the club.
But it's just not what it looks like,
I can't deal with this fight,
I'm so done and over it.So say the things you say to all your friends and I'll take the blame again for shit I never did to you.
'Cause I keep trying to be good, but I'm so so bad.Trouble keeps on finding me when I don't want it to.
I'm leaving everything so clean,
But these girls are DIRTY.I don't know where things got so bad.
Don't even write or call or speak at all but they keep coming back.Just keep coming.Say the things you say to all your friends and I'll take the blame again for shit I never did to you.
'Cause I keep trying to be good, but I'm so so bad.I'm so so bad.
'Cause I keep trying to be good, but I'm so so bad.Say the things you say.Say the things you say to all your friends and I'll take the blame again for shit I never did to you.
'Cause I keep trying to be good, but I'm so so bad.So say the things you say to all your friends and I'll take the blame again for shit I never did to you.
Well I guess I'm not what you thought.
'Cause I keep trying to be good, but I'm so so bad.
And everyone is making out I'm so so bad.
Well then I guess I'm just better off being bad.
